Stephen Bauer

Redwood City, CA – (650) 787-5737 – stevedbauer@gmail.com

Goals

Ambitious and passionate recent graduate from a coding bootcamp in San Francisco and comfortable with Ruby and Javascript, seeking a Junior Developer position from which to refine existing skills, learn new languages and frameworks, and contribute to a team.

Professional Experience:

General Assembly, San Francisco, CA
Web Development Immersive Student, 1/6/2014 - 4/1/2014
https://github.com/melodicodyssey

Soma Beverage Company LLC, San Francisco, CA
Operations Coordinator, 5/2012 – 4/2013
- Coordinated with production facilities, logistics brokers, freight carriers, 3rd-party logistics facilities and RM vendors to maintain effective inventory levels and customer order fulfillment.
- Given sole Operations responsibility, and trusted with monthly inventory reconciliation, as well as total inventory control and management.
- Firsthand experience of a company restructuring process from an operations standpoint.
- Use of Intuit Quickbooks

SolarCity (Accountemps), San Mateo, CA
Temporary Utility Administrator, 3/2011 - 10/2011
- Submitted a high volume of U.S. Treasury grant applications, a highly visible process-oriented task requiring strong attention to detail, organization and teamwork.
- Aided in the generation of amounts exceeding $30 million in grants and incentives.
- Use of internal database software and external government systems

Volunteer History

San Francisco Volleyball Association, San Francisco, CA
Volunteer Bookkeeper, 1/2012 - 5/2012
- Created and maintained an adequate small non-profit accounting system via Quickbooks, which is still in use by the organization.

Education

General Assembly, San Francisco, CA
Web Development Immersive course, Jan 2014

San Francisco State University, San Francisco, CA
B.S. in Business Administration, concentration in Accounting, May 2010
 Member of Accounting Student's Organization, 2009-2010
 Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA), Spring 2010